

Dmitry Davydenko's bio

Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law scholarship holder for 2009 and 2010. Participant of Russian-German research project on international commercial arbitration.

Author of more than 60 publications relating to arbitration and alternative dispute resolution, enforcement of arbitral awards and foreign judgments.

Member of the Expert and Instructional Council of the Mediators' Collegium at the Russian Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Member of the Young International Arbitration Group sponsored by the London Court of International Arbitration \(LCIA\), Young ICCA Group functioning under the auspices of the International Council for Commercial Arbitration \(ICCA\), Young Arbitrators Stockholm.

PhD thesis "Amicable Settlement Agreement as a Means of Out-of-Court Private Law Dispute Resolution \(under the Russian Law and the Law of Selected Foreign Countries\)" defended in Moscow State Institute of International Relations (MGIMO University) of the Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 2004).

A graduate of the International Law Faculty of MGIMO University. While being a postgraduate student, won a first prize award at the scientific conference of the Moscow State University and the Russian Justice Academy "Legislation reform in Russia: problems and perspectives» under section «Acute issues of civil legislation of Russia» with a report "Out-of-court settlement agreement and its regulation by civil law".

He has participated as part of the MGIMO University team in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot (Vienna, Austria).

Studied dispute resolution (negotiations, mediation, arbitration) provided by the faculty of Humboldt University (Berlin, Germany) and Tulane University Law School.

He also took part in the training on conflict mediation of the Russian American Program on Conflictology.

Also studied international trade law under the program of the Institute on International and Comparative Law of the San Diego University.

Dmitry Davydenko speaks English, French, Italian, Russian and Belarusian.